

Diary Entry

Imagine you live in a MAPA region and are affected by the consequences of climate change.

What might a day as a MAPA activist look like for you? What could you do? What would be your demands to the politicians? Which consequences of the climate crisis could directly affect you?

